MEDIA GUIDELINES & INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS: Requests for game-by-game credentials should be submitted in writing — on company letterhead — to the Pistons' Public Relations Department AT LEAST 30 HOURS PRIOR to the game you wish to cover (2:00 p.m. on Friday for a Saturday, Sunday or Monday game). Credential requests may be faxed (248-377-3260) or mailed. NO CREDENTIAL REQUESTS WILL BE HONORED ON GAME DAY. Please make certain all requests for credentials are confirmed by the Public Relations Department prior to arriving at the arena. Credentials may be obtained 2 1/2 hours prior to each game at the press gate, located at the loading dock media entrance in the southwest corner of the arena. Credentials must be visibly worn at all times and are non-transferable.

PHOTOGRAPHERS: Limited (and assigned) space is available for both accredited television and still photographers in one of two quadrants — either the west side of the basket stanchion on the north end of the floor or the east side of the basket stanchion on the north end of the floor. ABSOLUTELY NO TRIPODS ALLOWED. Photographers must be seated and stationary, at least four feet behind the baseline at all times. Photographers are not permitted on the court at any time during the game and cannot shoot from public walkways or gathering areas. Orders for strobe lights must be requested through the Pistons' Public Relations Department.

Photo credentials will be issued in the same manner as other credentials, although requests should be submitted by the photo editor. It is club policy NOT to allow freelance photographers. Each photographer will be assigned a position by the Pistons' Public Relations Department, making it imperative that we are aware of your intentions to shoot a particular game. A photo (and seating) chart will be available in the media room and on the back of each basket stanchion. Photographers located on the baseline will be permitted only one standard size "Domke" bag which must be placed behind the photographer during the game. Equipment not needed during the game must be stored off-court. One additional camera can be stored either beside or directly behind the photographer.

RUBBER LENS SHADES: In order to reduce the reduce the risk of injury to players, rubber lens shades are now required for all still photographers, broadcasters, news and entertainment video and film crews who are authorized to shoot NBA game action. Any additional light sources must be either removed or covered with bubble wrap.

Rubber lens covers are available by contacting:
Robert's Distributors, Inc.
255 S. Meridian Street
Indianapolis, IN 46225
(800) 726-5544

PARKING: Members of the media who have been issued credentials will be granted parking privileges in press parking area, located on the south side of the arena. Entrance to the arena parking lot for Media Members will be through the southern-most entrance off Lapeer Road.

MEDIA WORKROOM: The media workroom, located across the hall from the Pistons' locker room, is open three hours prior to each game and features comfortable work areas for your convenience. Telephone and fax service is available, as well as game notes, media guides, statistics, post-game quotes and out-of-town scores. Should you need any additional assistance or service, please do not hesitate to ask Matt Dobek, Kevin Grigg, Cletus Lewis or any member of the Pistons' Public Relations staff.

PRE- AND POST-GAME INTERVIEWS: In accordance with NBA policy, both the Pistons and visiting locker rooms will be open to accredited media members for a 45 minute period prior to each game (6:00 – 6:45 p.m. for a 7:30 game) and no later than 15 minutes following the conclusion of each game. Players and coaches are available for interviews at those times, although it is recommended that any interview lasting longer than five minutes in duration be arranged in advance through the Pistons' Public Relations Department (any live television pre- or post-game interviews should also be arranged in advance through the PR Department). ONLY working media members with valid credentials will be admitted to the locker room. No still photography is permitted in either teams' locker room. ABSOLUTELY NO AUTOGRAPHS ALLOWED DURING MEDIA ACCESS PERIOD.

INTERVIEW ROOM: Detroit Pistons Head Coach Michael Curry will meet the media in the West hospitality room, down the hall from the Pistons' locker room, approximately 10 minutes after the conclusion of the game.

GAME NOTES, STATISTICS & STATISTICIANS: Game notes and statistics are available in the Pistons media room three hours prior to each game. Statistics are distributed to working media following each quarter. Post-game quotes and notes are distributed as quickly as possible following the conclusion of each game. Local statisticians are available to assist visiting television and radio broadcasters, and can be arranged by contacting the Pistons Public Relations Department several days in advance. Once a request is made, the statisticians must be compensated whether or not they are used.

FAX SERVICE: The Pistons will provide complementary fax service to members of the working media following each game.

AUTOGRAPHS: SEEKING AUTOGRAPHS OR SOUVENIR ITEMS FROM PLAYERS OR COACHES IS STRICTLY PROHIBITED AND SUBJECT TO FORFEITURE OF CREDENTIAL.

PRACTICE POLICY: In general, practices — which will usually be held at the team's practice facility — are closed to the media, with the exception of the last 30 minutes. However, players and coaches will be available for brief interviews with accredited media members at the conclusion of each session. Interviews lasting longer than five minutes in duration should be scheduled in advance through the Pistons' Public Relations Department. Please contact a PR staff representative to confirm practice times, sites and player availability.

INTERNATIONAL MEDIA POLICY: International media interested in covering NBA regular season games must first submit a request in writing to the NBA league office. Please do not contact the Detroit Pistons individually. All credential requests must be received at least three business days prior to the first game requested. Photo identification will be required when picking up confirmed credentials at the media entrance. Requests must be FAXED to the attention of Rachel Walsh (NBA International) at 212-407-8058. Additional information on international media policies may be obtained by calling the NBA league office.

WE WORK AS ONE.

William DAVIDSON

MANAGING PARTNER

Recognized as one of the most successful owners in the National Basketball Association for over 30 years, Detroit Pistons Managing Partner William Davidson can be credited for a majority of the success the organization has enjoyed. Detroit's 1989, 1990 and 2004 World Championships can be directly attributed to Davidson, the club's majority owner since 1974, and under his direction, the Pistons have been considered one of the league's elite franchises for over 20 years. In September 2008, Davidson's contributions to the game of basketball were honored when he was officially enshrined into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame.

During the 2003-04 sports year, he became the first owner in sports history to win championships in three different professional leagues. The Pistons returned to glory, winning the organization's third championship in franchise history, the Tampa Bay Lightning won their first Stanley Cup and the Shock won its first WNBA Championship.

With a franchise-record seven straight seasons of recording 50 or more wins, the Pistons have won 384 regular season games (.669 wining percentage), including a franchise-record 63 wins in 2005-06. The club has compiled 73 playoff wins in that same span and made six consecutive trips to the Eastern Conference Finals for the first time in franchise history. Detroit has won six Central Division titles in the last seven seasons and nine overall since 1987-88. Only the San Antonio Spurs have won more division titles in the same 20-year span.

He continues to keep the team at the league's forefront with such amenities as a state-of-the-art practice facility, solely designed for the Pistons. Team members are able to use the facilities all summer long while working on personal off-season conditioning goals. It will be used for the team's training camp for the 13th straight year, alleviating the need to go off-site for the preseason.

Davidson's world champion Pistons were the first professional sports team to own their own plane, Roundball One. Roundball Two, a newer, larger, multimillion-dollar aircraft was purchased and refurbished in the summer of 1998 for the organization. Its 42 luxury seats and state-of-the-art video system allows the Pistons to fly in true, first-class comfort.

WILLIAM DAVIDSON

LEADERSHIP

Davidson became one of just a few multi-sport, major players in 1999, when he, along with Palace Sports and Entertainment partners David Hermelin and the late Robert Sosnick, purchased the Tampa Bay Lightning of the National Hockey League. Davidson's vision for duplicating the success of the Pistons and their home, The Palace of Auburn Hills, came to fruition during the 2003-04 season in Tampa, when the Lightning hoisted the Stanley Cup in front of a capacity crowd at the St. Pete Times Forum. Davidson sold the Lightning to a group led by Hollywood producer Olin Koules in a deal finalized in July 2008.

The Shock joined the Washington Mystics as the first two expansion teams in the WNBA in 1998 and the team was an immediate success in the upstart league, finishing with a 17-13 record in the Eastern Conference in their inaugural season. Recording a league-best 24-10 record in 2007, the Shock missed a bid to win back-to-back WNBA Championships, losing to Phoenix in Game 5 of The Finals in front of a league record 22,076 fans at The Palace. The 2006 Shock won its second WNBA Championship in a 3-2 series victory over the Sacramento Monarchs. The 2003 season was a banner year for the Shock as they recorded a league-best 25-9 record and were crowned WNBA Champions by defeating the Los Angeles Sparks 2-1 in the WNBA Finals. The Shock set a WNBA attendance record (22,076) in Game 3 of the WNBA Finals and was the first team since 1890 to go from the worst team in a professional sports league to the best team.

With the busiest amphitheater in the country in DTE Energy Music Theatre (purchased in 1990), Palace Sports and Entertainment now has the ability to bring the best in summer entertainment to its clientele. In 1988-89, the Pistons began play in The Palace, a state-of-the-art arena built with Davidson's financial support: a facility, which when combined with the Pistons, forms the foundation of his entertainment business. The company also added management of the Meadow Brook Music Festival in the summer of 1994, further developing the entertainment division of Palace Sports and Entertainment.

The Pistons have played in the postseason in 19 of the past 25 years, including 11 of the past 13 seasons. Davidson acquired the Detroit Pistons in 1974 from the late Fred Zollner, the man who founded the team in Fort Wayne, Indiana in the 1940s. Zollner later moved the franchise to Detroit before the 1957-58 season.

Interested in a wide variety of sports, Davidson is one of the most knowledgeable heads of a NBA franchise. He can usually be found sitting courtside at all Pistons home games, and has studied many players and coaches in the league and is able to make some very astute observations.

Davidson's athletic history dates back many years and has continued alongside his business career. He was a high school and college trackman and played football in the Navy during World War II. Davidson was an inaugural inductee into the Jewish Sports Hall of Fame.

The Pistons' majority owner likes success and has known it in his business interests. That's why now, the success of the Detroit Pistons comes as no surprise to those who are aware of Davidson's ability to manage people. His secret is simple: Hire competent managers and place the responsibility on them.

Educated in Business Law, Davidson received a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration from the University of Michigan and earned a Juris Doctor's Degree from Wayne State University.

After three years, Davidson gave up his law practice to take over a wholesale drug company. He rescued it from bankruptcy and turned it around in three years. After this success, he did the same with a surgical supply company. The next step > was to take the Guardian Glass Company, the family business, pay off all debts and head it into the profitable direction the company now enjoys. Today, Guardian Industries remains the flagship of his corporate interests. Its world headquarters are located on the same property as The Palace and the Pistons practice facility in Auburn Hills, Michigan, Davidson's previous track record has paved the way for the Pistons, The Palace and DTE Energy Music Theatre. His formula for success, which turned the Pistons around and made The Palace one of the top arenas in the world, carries over into the DTE Energy Music Theatre, now considered one of the top amphitheaters in the country.

Davidson's management talents are continually on display in NBA circles, where he served as Chairman of the Board of Governors and has been active on several committees, including the one that selected former NBA Commissioner Lawrence O'Brien in 1975.

Davidson's involvement in the Detroit community is well documented. In 1997 he was honored for his lifelong philanthropic efforts, locally, nationally and internationally, by the Council of Michigan Foundations. The same year, he was listed in a New York Times article as one of America's most generous donors. Davidson was also one of the "founding fathers" who originated the Pistons/Palace Foundation, a charitable vehicle that has donated more than $20 million dollars in cash and merchandise since 1989. In January, 1995 the foundation worked in conjunction with the City of Detroit's Parks and Recreation Department to establish the Partnership to Adopt and Renovate Parks for Kids (PARK) Program. The program provides for restoration of Detroit parks, basketball courts, baseball diamonds, running tracks and playground equipment.

In 1992, he donated $30 million to his alma mater, the University of Michigan's School of Business Administration. The grant to establish the William Davidson Institute will provide assistance in a special program to help develop market economies throughout the world. He has also endowed the William Davidson Graduate School of Jewish Education at the Jewish Theological Seminary of America in New York with a $15 million gift, and the American Technion Society to establish the world's first educational institution entirely dedicated to the international management of technology-based companies at the Technion-Israel Institute of Technology. In 1999, the Davidson Institute of Science Education was established at the Weizmann Institute of Science in Rehovot, Israel. His $20 million gift was the largest private donation ever given to the Institute that is a leading international science research center and graduate school.

Locally Davidson has donated a renewable $2 million gift to the Detroit Symphony Orchestra that enables the organization to make long-term touring plans both in the U.S. and internationally and pledged to fight cancer with a gift of $1 million to support collaborative research, prevention and early detection programs in breast and pediatric cancers at the Karmanos Cancer Institute and Children's Research Center of Michigan.

The Detroit Pistons ownership group includes Legal Counsel Oscar Feldman, and Advisory Board Members Warren Coville, Bud Gerson, Dorothy Gerson, Ann Newman and William Wetsman.

Davidson and his wife, Karen, currently reside in Bloomfield Hills. He has two grown children, Ethan and Marla.

Tom WILSON

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, PALACE SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT

PRESIDENT AND CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER, PISTONS

Tom Wilson enters his 17th season as president of the Detroit Pistons and 20th as president of Palace Sports and Entertainment, Inc. During his 31-year tenure as the team's top business executive, the Pistons have won three NBA Championships (1989, 1990, 2004) and evolved into one of the best-marketed and most highly-valued teams in professional sports.

Palace Sports & Entertainment has enjoyed unprecedented success over the past six years, becoming the first sports franchise to win three major titles (NBA Championship, Stanley Cup and WNBA Championship) during the 2003-04 sports year. The Detroit Shock won its second WNBA crown in 2006 and, in February 2005, ESPN The Magazine named the Detroit Pistons as the number one franchise in professional sports according to its annual survey. This past season the Pistons made their sixth consecutive trip to the Eastern Conference Finals for the first time in franchise history and won their sixth Central Division crown in seven years.

Elevating Wilson to the presidency in 1992, Managing Partner William Davidson stressed the importance of building a structure within the organization that will have a long-term effect.

LEADERSHIP .

Since joining the Pistons in 1977, Wilson has handled all business aspects of not only the Detroit Pistons, but also of Palace Sports and Entertainment, which includes The Palace of Auburn Hills, DTE Energy Music Theatre, Meadow Brook Music Festival and the Detroit Shock. He was named Employee of the Year for 1990 by Guardian Industries, the Pistons' and The Palace's parent company. The award marked the first time Guardian Industries gave the honor to an employee outside of its direct glass manufacturing and fabrication divisions.

The Palace of Auburn Hills, which celebrates its 20th season in 2008-09, was designed largely around Wilson's input and he was responsible for staffing and developing organizational philosophies for the arena. Wilson's ability to create a family atmosphere among his staff and guests has produced entertainment at its best. Enhancing the Palace experience, The Windsor Casino Club was introduced in October 2001 and the Caesers Windsor Suite Level opened in September 2002 offering fans additional entertainment opportunities before and after every Palace event. The popular KeyBank Club and Vito Anthony Suites were added on the event level of the building in 2005. These new areas allow guests to experience unique views and exciting entertainment possibilities at each Palace event. Further expansion in 2006 yielded the sparkling new Comcast Pavilion and concourse. The concourse level boasts several food and beverage options including Detroit staples Big Boy, Buffalo Wild Wings, Sanders Ice Cream and the popular Red Bull Bar. Fans can further enjoy their experience by visiting the upscale Ameriprise Club located on the top level of the Atrium.

Under his direction, The Palace has earned Arena of the Year awards nine times by Performance magazine, beginning with New Venue of the Year in 1988. The Palace was also named Arena of the Year by Pollstar after receiving that publication's Best New Concert Venue honors for 1988. Wilson's direction was instrumental in the acquisition and renovation of DTE Energy Music Theatre as well, and he remains actively involved in the operational phase and the ongoing improvement of the facility.

DTE Energy Music Theatre has been named the nation's busiest, top-grossing or highest attended outdoor venue by Amusement Business in each of its 17 summers under Wilson's guidance. It was named Best Outdoor Concert Venue in Pollstar's 2000 Readers' Poll and has also been nominated Amphitheatre of the Year during each summer of PS & E ownership. In 1994 Palace Sports and Entertainment assumed management of Meadow Brook Music Festival on the grounds of Oakland University in Rochester, Michigan.

As executive administrator of Palace Sports and Entertainment, Wilson is ultimately responsible for > the day-to-day operations of its sales, advertising, marketing and broadcasting departments.

Under Wilson's guidance, the Detroit Shock of the Women's National Basketball Association was added to Palace Sports and Entertainment in the summer of 1998. Recording a league-best 24-10 record in 2007, the Shock missed a bid to win back-toback WNBA Championships, losing to Phoenix in Game 5 of The Finals in front of a league record 22,076 fans at The Palace. Detroit won its second WNBA Championship in 2006, following a 3-2 series victory over the Sacramento Monarchs. The 2003 season was a banner year for the Shock as they recorded a league-best 25-9 record and were crowned WNBA Champions by defeating the Los Angeles Sparks 2-1 in the WNBA Finals. The Shock set a WNBA attendance record (22,076) in Game 3 of the WNBA Finals and was the first team since 1890 to go from the worst team in a professional sports league to the best team.

A native Detroiter, Wilson joined the Pistons in 1977 as Sales Director and was promoted to Chief Executive Officer shortly thereafter. He graduated from Cass Technical High School and received a Bachelor's of business administration from Wayne State University. Upon graduation, Wilson worked for the Los Angeles Lakers, the Los Angeles Kings, and the Forum.

Wilson serves on the William Beaumont Hospital Board of Trustees and was named the 1994 Executive of the Year by the Oakland Executives Association. He was instrumental in the development and implementation of the Pistons/Palace Foundation that has provided more than $40 million in grants and donations to deserving organizations and individuals throughout the state since its inception.

In 2002, he was presented with the prestigious Ernst & Young Master Entrepreneur Award for the State of Michigan and in 2003 he received the Gerald R. Ford Sportsperson of the Year award from the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame for his contributions to the community.

Wilson and his wife, Linda, reside in Oakland Township with daughter, Brooke, and son Kevin.

Joe DUMARS

PRESIDENT OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Since being named as president of basketball operations on June 6, 2000, Joe Dumars has transformed the organization from a team that won 32 games in 2000-01 to a team that has compiled a record of 384-190 (.669) over the last seven years. In 2007-08, the club won 50-plus games for a franchise record seventh consecutive season and won its sixth Central Division title in seven years. In 2005-06, Detroit recorded its best regular-season record in franchise history (64-18). In 2004-05, the club won its second consecutive Eastern Conference Championship and reached the NBA Finals in consecutive seasons for the first time since 1989 and 1990. Over the last seven years, the club has won an NBA Championship (2004), compiled 73 playoff wins and made six consecutive trips to the Eastern Conference Finals, the most since the Los Angeles Lakers went to six straight from 1984 to 1989.

Bold personnel decisions and an unwillingness to settle for mediocrity have become trademarks of Dumars' leadership over the last eight years, and, as the Pistons look to return to the NBA Finals for the third time in six years, the 2003 Sporting News NBA Executive of the Year continues striving to keep the organization among the NBA's elite.

Known as one of the great competitors in the NBA throughout his 14-year playing career, "Joe D" – as he commonly referred to around the Detroit area – is entering his ninth full season as president of basketball operations in 2008-09 and his 24th overall in the NBA. The 45-year-old Louisiana native was promoted to his current position after serving as the club's vice president of player personnel during the 1999-00 season.

LEADERSHIP

Dumars' keen eye for talent has paved the way for Detroit's resurgence. His personnel moves have landed Detroit 2004 NBA Finals MVP Chauncey Billups as well as NBA All-Stars Richard Hamilton, Rasheed Wallace and Antonio McDyess. In addition, Dumars has drafted key talent equally important to Detroit's current and future success. Tayshaun Prince (No. 23 pick in 2002), Jason Maxiell (No. 26 pick in 2005), Amir Johnson (No. 56 pick in 2005), Rodney Stuckey (No. 15 pick in 2007) and Arron Afflalo (No. 27 pick in 2007) all play important roles in the future success of the franchise.

While the success and honors the club has enjoyed over the last seven seasons has been well documented, Dumars continues to stress the importance of continued improvement. That is why the 2008 offseason was as busy and equally important as the last. Dumars brought back a familiar face when he named Michael Curry as the 26th head coach in franchise history, a move made with intentions of refocusing the team on its core values of hard work, focus and attention to detail. He signed former No. 1 pick Kwame Brown to help solidify the frontcourt and added athletic point guard Will Bynum to add depth at the guard position. The club also selected three players, Walter Sharpe (Alabama-Birmingham), Trent Plaisted (BYU) and Deron Washington (Virginia Tech) with the 32nd, 46th and 59th pick, respectively, in the 2008 NBA Draft.

Dumars' Detroit beginning coincided with one of the most successful eras in Pistons basketball history. Following a 46-36 rookie campaign in 1985-86, Dumars' teams won 50-plus games each of the next five seasons and two NBA Championships (1989, 1990). He won the first of many NBA honors following the team's 63-19 record in 1988-89, being named to the NBA's All-Defensive First Team. The six-time NBA All-Star was named Most Valuable Player of the 1989 NBA Finals, following the club's successful back-to-back defense of the NBA Championship. Dumars was named first team NBA All-Rookie in 1985-86 and first team NBA All-Defense four times (1988-89, 1989-90, 1991-92 and 1992-93). He was named All-NBA Third Team for 1989-90 and 1990-91 and All-NBA Second Team in 1992-93 when he averaged a career-best 23.5 points per game.

Dumars retired from the game as a player following the 1998-99 NBA season and moved to the front office with a goal of helping return the team to the place that he and his "Bad Boys" teammates knew so well; the NBA Finals. He played in The NBA Finals three times, winning championship rings in 1989 and 1990. His basketball acumen and insights into the game and its players will undoubtedly be beneficial to the organization as it continues to pursue its goals. Dumars, who became the seventh Pistons player to have their jersey retired, also had the NBA Sportsmanship Award named after him on the same evening. The NBA Sportsmanship Award winner, which recognizes the NBA player who best represents the ideals of sportsmanship on the court, is presented with the Joe Dumars Trophy each year. Dumars was named the inaugural recipient of the NBA Sportsmanship Award in November 1996. Dumars' playing career was recognized with the highest of all honors when he officially enshrined into the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in September 2006.

Drafted out of McNeese State with the 18th selection in the first round of the 1985 NBA Draft, Dumars went on to play 1,018 regular season games for Detroit in 14 seasons, making him the most tenured player in franchise history. He retired as the team's all-time leading three-point shooter with 990 made and its second all-time leading scorer with 16,401 points. The 6-foot-3 shooting guard also ranks second on Detroit's all-time list for assists (4,612), second in steals (902), third in field goals made (5,994), third in field goals attempted (13,026), third in free throws made (3,423) and third in free throws attempted (4,059).

In addition to his role with the Pistons, Dumars maintains a partnership in Joe Dumars Fieldhouse, an indoor multi-sports and entertainment complex located in Shelby Township. A second Joe Dumars Fieldhouse was opened in 2004 in Detroit, Michigan. Dumars was appointed to the executive committee of the United States Tennis Association in January 1999 and was most recently inducted into the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame and Louisiana Sports Hall of Fame in 2003. He fulfilled a life-long goal this past spring when he completed and received his bachelor's degree in business management from McNeese State.

Born on May 24, 1963, in Shreveport, Louisiana, Joe and his wife, Debbie, reside in Detroit with their two children, Jordan (17) and Aren (15).

LEADERSHIP • SCOTT PERRY

Scott PERRY

VICE PRESIDENT, BASKETBALL OPERATIONS

Scott Perry re-joined as the Pistons as Vice President of Basketball Operations in May 2008 after serving one year as Assistant General Manager for the Seattle Supersonics (2007-08). He is responsible for directing day-to-day operations of the basketball operations department, handling player personnel issues and assisting in roster development.

Perry's first stint with Detroit saw him promoted to director of player personnel in June of 2002 after joining the club as a college scout during the summer of 2000.

Prior to joining the Pistons, Perry spent three seasons as a head coach at Eastern Kentucky in the Ohio Valley Conference and nine seasons as an assistant coach with Michigan, Cal-Berkeley and Detroit Mercy. In addition to helping Michigan land the nation's top ranked recruiting classes in 1994 and 1995, Perry played a significant role in recruiting NBA players Robert Traylor and Maurice Taylor. He also coached Dallas Mavericks guard Jason Kidd and former NBA forward Lamond Murray at California and former NBA guard Jalen Rose and Dallas Mavericks forward Juwan Howard at Michigan.

Graduating from Wayne State in 1986 with a Bachelor's degree in marketing, Perry was a captain and all-conference basketball player his senior year. Recruited to play at Oregon by Indiana Pacers coach Jim O'Brien and NBA executive Stu Jackson, he spent his freshman year with the Ducks prior to transferring. Chairman of the St. Cecilia's Athletic Board and organizer of the Ceciliaville Golf Outing for the past six years, Perry resides in West Bloomfield with his wife, Kim, and daughter Chelsea (14). Perry's father, Lowell, was the first black assistant coach in the NFL, hired by the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1957.

ALAN OSTFIELD • LEADERSHIP

Alan OSTFIELD

CHIEF OPERATING OFFICER & ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER

Alan Ostfield is entering his seventh season as Chief Operating Officer and Assistant General Manager after joining Palace Sports & Entertainment and the Detroit Pistons as Senior Vice President of Business & Legal Affairs in January 2000. In his & Entertainment's and the Detroit Pistons' business operations, structures and negotiates significant business relationships, evaluates new business opportunities and leads the strategic planning efforts. In addition Ostfield serves as Assistant General Manager of the Detroit Pistons, managing the NBA's salary cap and participating in player negotiations and transactions.

Prior to joining Palace Sports & Entertainment and the Detroit Pistons, Ostfield was Senior Vice President & General Counsel of the San Diego Padres Baseball Club, where he was involved in the club's business, legal and baseball activities. Ostfield began his sports career as an attorney with Wilmer, Cutler & Pickering in Washington D.C., specializing in sports, corporate and bankruptcy law and worked with a client list that included the Dallas Cowboys. He has also combined his experiences in professional sports with higher education, including developing and teaching "Managing a Professional Sports Franchise" in the University of Michigan's Sport Management Masters Program, teaching "Sports and the Law" at the University of San Diego School of Law and writing articles for various publications and speaking at various universities regarding the business and legal issues in professional sports.

Ostfield's achievements were recognized nationally in 2000, 2001 and 2002 when he was included in Street & Smith's SportsBusiness Journal's annual "Forty Under 40" list recognizing the 40 most influential sports executives under the age of 40. Street & Smith inducted Ostfield into its "Forty Under 40" Hall of Fame in 2002.

Actively involved in community and educational activities, Ostfield is currently a member of the Sport Management Advisory Board at the University of Michigan and the Board of Advisors for the National Sports Law Institute. He is an active member of the Pistons Read To Achieve program and is a contributor to Palace Sports & Entertainment's Speakers Bureau. Ostfield's past community activities have included serving on the Board of Directors of the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame and the Make-A-Wish Foundation of San Diego.

Ostfield earned a Bachelor's Degree in Economics from the University of Pennsylvania prior to attending Boston University, where he received his Juris Doctor (Magna Cum Laude) from its School of Law and a Master of Business Administration degree from its Graduate School of Management. He and his wife, Jennifer, reside in Beverly Hills with their two children, Benjamin and Hannah.

Michael CURRY

HEAD COACH

When Joe Dumars hired Michael Curry as the 26th head coach in franchise history on June 10, 2008, he knew that he was hiring a coach that understands the culture Detroit Basketball. It is rare that a player on a 10-day contract makes an impression with veteran teammates, but in 1995, Curry made an immediate impression on Dumars.

"Most players who come in on a 10-day just want to survive," recalls Dumars. "Michael was different – he came in talking and had opinions and I thought 'Ok, this guy's got some leadership skills. He'll be out of here in 10 days, but he's got some leadership skills."

He stuck around a lot longer than Dumars and most people expected - 11 NBA seasons as a player, four years as NBA Players Association President, a two-year appointment as an NBA executive, an assistant coach for the Pistons and now - head coach.

Curry's leadership, toughness and tireless work ethic has earned him this opportunity, but it is his understanding of the organization and its expectations as well as his competitive drive that gives Dumars comfort in his ability to return this team to its roots - a team that goes to work and plays with passion - every night.

MICHAEL CURRY

LEADERSHIP

Curry, 40, has spent 14 years in the NBA as a player, assistant coach and NBA administrator. Six of those 14 years were spent as a member of the Pistons' organization. He was an assistant coach for the Pistons last year after serving as NBA Development League's Vice President of Player Development (2005-06) and NBA Vice President of Basketball Operations (2006-07).

He played in the NBA for 11 seasons, including two stints with Detroit (1995-97 and 1999-2003), where he was widely respected for his leadership and knowledge of the game. In all, he compiled career averages of 4.5 points, 1.6 rebounds and 1.2 assists in 667 NBA games with Philadelphia, Washington, Detroit, Milwaukee, Toronto and Indiana and appeared in 36 career playoff games. Curry played a major role in Detroit's turnaround during the 2001-02 and 2002-03 seasons under Rick Carlisle. The Pistons won the Central Division both years with 50-32 records, advanced to the second round of the NBA Playoffs in 2001-02 and the Eastern Conference Finals in 2002-03.

Curry's leadership qualities were on display during the NBA lockout of 1999. Despite not being an officer in the NBA Players' Association, he proved instrumental in helping ratify a new collective bargaining agreement between the NBA and its players. His focus and ability to unify the players during that crucial time translated further into a two-year executive vice president role within the union and ultimately a four-year reign as the union's president. During those six > years leading the NBA Players' Association, player salaries climbed to record levels across the board.

> Following four years at Georgia Southern and prior to joining the NBA ranks, he played in Germany, Belgium, France, Italy and Spain, as well as in the United States Basketball League (1992), Global Basketball League and in the Continental Basketball Association (1992-93 and 1995-96). While playing for the Pistons during the 2000-01 season, Curry completed a Master's degree in sports management from Virginia Commonwealth University which was presented in May 2001.

The Augusta, GA native, who worked on the grounds crew at The Masters golf tournament while in high school, resides in Oakland County with his wife, Katrina and their four children, Xavier (a senior at Michigan State and member of the football team), Ashley (a senior at the University of Georgia), Michael Jr. and Crysten.

Dave COWENS

ASSISTANT COACH

Hall of Famer and one of the NBA's 50 Greatest Players of All-Time, Dave Cowens is enters his third season with the Detroit Pistons as an assistant coach. Prior to joining the Pistons he served as head coach and general manager for the expansion Chicago Sky in the WNBA in 2006.

Cowens brings with him nine years of coaching experience to the Pistons, including six years as an NBA head coach. He served as a player/coach for the 1978-79 Boston Celtics and re-joined the NBA coaching ranks in 1997 with the Charlotte Hornets. Cowens led Charlotte to their only back-to-back 50-win seasons in his first two seasons and posted a 109-70 (.609) record with the Hornets from 1997-99. He was named head coach of the Golden State Warriors in 2001, amassing a 25-80 record in two seasons. Overall, he's posted a 161-191 (.457) coaching record.

Originally selected by the Boston Celtics in the first round of the 1970 NBA Draft (fourth overall), Cowens enjoyed a prolific 11-year NBA playing career, including 10 seasons with Boston. The 6-9 center, who earned a reputation as a blue-collar player who outworked his opponents with hustle and desire, became the 14th player in Celtics franchise history to have his jersey (#18) retired on February 8, 1981. He earned NBA Co-Rookie of the Year honors in 1970-71 (along with Portland's Geoff Petrie) and the league's Most Valuable Player award in 1972-73, when he averaged career-high figures in both scoring (20.5) and rebounding (16.2)

Cowens averaged a double-double (points/rebounds) in each of his first eight NBA seasons, including his rookie campaign in 1970-71 (17.0 points and 15.0 rebounds). He was a member of two NBA Championship teams with the Celtics (1974, 1976), earned All-NBA Second Team honors three times (1973, 1975, 1976), NBA All-Defensive First Team honors once (1976), NBA All-Defensive Second Team honors twice (1975, 1980) and ranked among the league's top 10 leaders in rebounding seven times. Furthermore, he was a member of the Eastern Conference All-Star team on six occasions, highlighted by the 1973 classic in Chicago, when he earned MVP honors (15 points/13 rebounds). He collected 20 rebounds in his first-ever All-Star Game appearance in 1972.

A Kentucky native, Cowens attended Florida State University, where he still holds the single-game record for rebounds in a game (31). He and is wife, Deby, have two daughters, Meghan and Samantha.

Darrell WALKER ASSISTANT COACH

Darrell Walker joins the Pistons as an assistant coach in 2008-09, bringing with him the experience of two seasons as an NBA head coach and 10 seasons as a NBA player. He most recently served as an assistant coach for the New Orleans Hornets since 2004 under last season's NBA Coach of the Year Byron Scott.

Walker began his coaching career when he served as an assistant in Toronto during the Raptors' 1995-96 inaugural season. He was promoted to head coach the day after the end of the regular season and led the Raptors to a 30-52 mark in 1996-97. Walker resigned as head coach of the team on Feb. 13, 1998 with an overall record of 41-90 (.313).

In the 1999-00 season, Walker pulled a rare hat trick when he served as head coach of three different franchises. He began the season on the sidelines with the Rockford Lightning of the Continental Basketball Association before being named interim head coach of the Washington Wizards on January 29. He guided the Wizards to a 15-23 record after taking over and was named the team's director of player personnel in May. On July 14, Walker stepped in once again as an interim head coach, this time with the WNBA's Washington Mystics, who finished the season with a 5-7 record and qualified for the WNBA Playoffs for the first time. He remained in Washington as director of player personnel for the Wizards in 2000-01, was head scout and special assistant in 2001-02 and a scout during the 2002-03 and 2003-04 seasons before joining the Hornets.

Walker's 10-year playing career began when he was drafted out of Arkansas by the New York Knicks in the first round (12th overall) of the 1983 NBA Draft. He averaged 7.9 points and 3.5 assists as a rookie and 13.5 points, 5.0 assists, 3.4 rebounds and 2.04 steals in his second season. After stops with Denver and Washington, Walker was traded to Detroit where he played for a season-and-a-half, averaging 4.8 points and 2.6 assists in 83 games. He was released by Detroit midway through the 1992-93 season and ended his career with the Chicago, helping the Bulls win the 1993 NBA Championship. In 720 career NBA games, Walker averaged 8.9 points, 4.6 assists, 4.4 rebounds and 1.51 steals per game.

Walker and his wife, Lisa, have four sons, Darrell, Jerrell, Jarrett and Jarren. He also has one daughter, Felicia. He was inducted into the Arkansas Hall of Honor on August 30, 2008.

Pat SULLIVAN ASSISTANT COACH

Pat Sullivan returns to Detroit for his second stint as an assistant coach with the Pistons after serving as an assistant coach for the New Jersey Nets for the last three seasons. He was promoted to the bench with the Pistons under Larry Brown in 2005-06 after serving as assistant coach/video coordinator during the club's 2003-04 NBA Championship season. Sullivan served as a coach for the Pistons summer league team that competed at the Vegas Summer League last July.

The Bogota, New Jersey native brings over 15 years of basketball experience with him as either a player or a coach. As a player at North Carolina, Sullivan played in three NCAA Final Fours (1991, 1993) and 1995) and coached in three as an assistant coach at UNC (1997, 1998 and 2000). Following his stint at UNC, Sullivan moved to North Carolina-Wilmington, where he was an assistant coach from 2001-03. Sullivan played at North Carolina with current Piston Rasheed Wallace as well as former Pistons' players Jerry Stackhouse and Hubert Davis.

Sullivan graduated from North Carolina in 1995 with a Bachelor's Degree in communications. A diehard fan of the New York Yankees, Sullivan currently resides in Oakland County.

Harold ELLIS ASSISTANT COACH

Former NBA and Morehouse College guard Harold Ellis begins his first season as an assistant coach with the Detroit Pistons. He spent the last six seasons as a minor league coordinator/scout with the Atlanta Hawks. Prior to his time with Atlanta, Ellis served as an assistant coach in 2001-02 on the inaugural staff of the NBA Development League's Roanoke Dazzle. In 2006, Ellis coached the Rome (GA) Gladiators of the World Basketball Association (WBA) to their second consecutive league title. He earned coach of the year honors in the process for the second straight time and led the club to a 42-6 mark during that span. He was also the team's general manager and was named by ProBasketballNews. com as the second-best coaching talent in the minors. Additionally, Ellis has spent time coaching with Rockford (CBA) and Las Vegas (IBL).

A former pro player in four leagues (the NBA, Continental Basketball Association, U.S. Basketball League and Greece), he is a 1992 graduate of Morehouse College. Ellis averaged 5.8 points in three NBA seasons with the L.A. Clippers (1993-94 and '94-95), where he was a teammate of Hall-of-Famer Dominique Wilkins, and Denver Nuggets.

An outstanding NCAA Division II player who led the Maroon Tigers in scoring in each of his four seasons (1988-92), Ellis became only the fifth player from a historically black college or university (HBCU) to have his uniform number retired (#30). Morehouse had a 90-30 record during his four years as a player there.

Ellis, the son of educators, has a Master's degree in sports management and administration from the U.S. Sports Academy in Daphne, AL and is pursuing a Ph.D. in sports psychology at the San Diego University for Integrative Studies. He recently served as Director of College Counselors at the adidas Basketball Experience in 2007 and has participated in the NBA's Basketball Without Borders Africa tour for the last four summers.

Bill POPE

ASSISTANT COACH / ADVANCE SCOUT

Bill Pope is entering his fourth season as assistant coach/advance scout with the Pistons. In his current position, Pope assists the coaching staff during training camp and the playoffs and serves as advance scout. Pope joined the Pistons as an assistant coach/video coordinator in 2004.

Pope spent the 2003-04 season as an assistant coach at Youngstown State after serving six years as head basketball coach at NCAA Division II Lincoln University. He was responsible for a dramatic turnaround at Lincoln as the school's head coach. He led the Blue Tigers to three consecutive winning seasons, a feat that had not been accomplished in 30 years. During his tenure the school had nine all-conference selections, two allregion performers, an All-American, a conference newcomer of the year and a conference player of the year in Kenny Dye in 2001-02. His 2000-01 squad shared the Heartland Conference Championship, posting 20-7 overall record and a 9-3 record in conference play. Pope was named Heartland Conference Coach of the Year following that season and the school was named NCAA Division II's Most Improved Team.

Pope graduated from Kansas in 1988 with a Bachelor's Degree in education, where he also served as a manager for the Jayhawks basketball team and head coach Larry Brown for five seasons. He joined Brown's staff with the San Antonio Spurs in 1989. Pope and his wife, Lesa, have two children, Ryan and Hallie.

Mike ABDENOUR ATHLETIC TRAINER

One of the NBA's most respected and tenured trainers, Mike Abdenour enters his 30th year with the Detroit Pistons and his 33rd year in the league this season. Abdenour's name has been virtually synonymous with the Pistons since he first started as the team's trainer in 1975. He worked in Detroit for 17 seasons before joining the Philadelphia 76ers in 1992. After a three-year stay in Philadelphia, Abdenour returned to the Pistons in 1995.

The 2007-08 season marked Abdenour's 13th in Detroit since his return. Aside from his duties as the team's head athletic trainer, Abdenour also handles travel matters for the Pistons.

Abdenour has a reputation as one of the league's most active and vocal trainers. He was always considered an integral part of coach Chuck Daly's staff on the Pistons' championship teams of 1989 and 1990, leaving Detroit after the 1991-92 season to take the job in Philadelphia.

Abdenour originally joined the Pistons staff in 1975 making the jump to the professional level from Wayne State University. He has been a member of the NBA's tight training fraternity since making that move.

A long standing certified member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association, as well as a Performance Enhancement Specialist with the National Academy Sports Medicine, Abdenour has handled a number of prestigious duties during his time in the NBA. Included on that list are serving as trainer for the 1979, 1994 and 2007 NBA All-Star games and the 1981 NBA All-Stars tour of mainland China. He served as secretary on the NBATA Executive Committee from 1987-89. He and his brother, Tom, made history of sorts in 1987, when they became the first brother training combination in professional sports as Tom was appointed trainer for the Golden State Warriors.

During the off-season Abdenour spends time with his wife, Janice, and his two sons Michael and Keith. Abdenour and his family reside in Grosse Pointe.

Arnie KANDER STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Strength and conditioning coach Arnie Kander is entering his 17th season with the Detroit Pistons. Kander has been with the Pistons since the spring of 1992, when he became the team's first strength and conditioning coach. He works in conjunction with team trainer Mike Abdenour on the prevention, treatment and rehabilitation of injuries for the Pistons. Kander's duties also include the design and implementation of specific programs that are aimed at enhancing individual players' flexibility, strength and aerobic conditioning.

An innovator in the strength and conditioning field, Kander has designed and developed the team's training area in its practice facility to meet the physical conditioning and developmental needs of NBA players. In addition to working with the team throughout the course of the season, Kander conducts an optional summer training program for each of the Detroit players at the practice facility. The program has proven to be quite successful and Kander gets credit for both the quick development of Detroit's young players and the continued conditioning of the team's veterans.

A 1987 graduate in physical therapy from Wayne State University, Kander began his career as the sports coordinator at Crittenton Fitness Institute. He then moved on to Rochester Knee and Sports Therapy where he worked as a staff therapist. Kander began his association with the Pistons while working at Rochester Knee and Sports.

Kander's interest in strength and conditioning began during his career as a professional dancer with the Virginia Ballet Company from 1983-86. He has since submitted several research projects on isokinetic strength testing, jump training and developing a jump platform system. While working for the Pistons, Kander has consulted and developed conditioning programs for some of the Detroit area's finest professional and amateur athletes.

Kander and his wife, Denise, have two children; son Ian and daughter Lindsay. The family resides in Lake Orion, Michigan.

NBA Cares is the league's global social responsibility effort that addresses important community issues with an emphasis on programs that support education, youth and family development, and health-related causes. The NBA, its teams and players implement and execute a variety of programs that impact and inspire children and families around the world.

NBA Cares also reaches more that two million players, coaches, parents and officials worldwide participating in recreational youth basketball leagues as part of the Jr. NBA/Jr. WNBA program. The program stresses the fundamentals of the game and the values of sportsmanship, teamwork and leading an active, healthy and safe lifestyle.

Through Basketball without Borders, a basketball instructional camp for young people that promotes friendship, healthy living and education, current and former NBA players and team personnel act as camp coaches and mentors for young athletes. Since the inaugural camp in 2001, BWB has been held in ten countries and territories on five continents and has featured more than 160 NBA players, coaches and team personnel from 30 different teams for more than 1,000 basketball players from more than 100 different countries and territories.

As the world's greatest athletes, NBA players are dedicated to the community and committed to giving back in ways big and small. Through their foundations, camp efforts and philanthropic work, they make a difference for hundreds of nonprofit and youth serving organizations.

NBA Cares supports numerous causes and organizations that support people in need and work to improve the quality of life in communities around the world. Make-A-Wish, UNICEF, KaBOOM!, Habitat for Humanity, Boys & Girls Club of America, Hands On Network, Special Olympics, the Global Business Coalition on HIV/ AIDS and the World Food Program are just a few of the organizations with which the NBA has a partnership.

WE WORK AS ONE.

OVERTIME • 20TH ANNIVERSARY

SINCE 1988

On August 13, 1988, The Palace hosted it's first event - a sold-out concert with Sting. In its first 20 years, The Palace has hosted 5,042 events and nearly 51 million guests. When it opened, The Palace of Auburn Hills was the second highest NBA arena in attendance to Charlotte. It is currently number one in the league in listed capacity.

POINTS OF INTEREST:

The Palace, which is completely privately financed, has invested more than $110 million in a continuous program of venue enhancements and enlargements throughout the years. This total surpasses the building's original construction cost, estimated somewhere between $75-$90 million.

The first basketball game at The Palace wasn't a Pistons game. Eight days after it opened, it hosted an exhibition game with the USA Olympic Men's Basketball team taking on a group of NBA All-Stars on August 21, 1988.

The first Detroit Pistons regular season home game was a 94-85 victory over the Charlotte Hornets on 11/5/88. Ironically, the first regular season home game of the WNBA's Detroit Shock was also against a team from Charlotte (the Sting) on 6/13/98. In this instance, the Detroit team fell to Charlotte 78-69.

The Palace increased its seating capacity by approximately 500 seats in 1997 by adding a ring of one row of seats to the front of the loge (200-level) seating sections at the cost of approximately one million dollars.

Though only 20 years old, The Palace enters the upcoming NBA season as the third oldest home arena in the league, behind only Madison Square Garden (NY Knicks) and Izod Center (NJ Nets).

Performers with the most sellout shows at The Palace in the first 20 years: Neil Diamond (16), Elton John (14), Billy Joel (12), Rod Stewart (9), Bon Jovi (8), Tim McGraw (8), Aerosmith (8) and Eric Clapton (8).

In The Palace's first 20 years, guests have consumed:

- · An estimated 3.8 million gallons of soda
- An estimated 3.4 million hot dogs
- · An estimated 3.3 million gallons of beer
- · An estimated 2.6 million jumbo pretzels
- In addition, Centerplace, The Palace's official concessionaire, has popped more than 600,000 pounds of popcorn seed

OVERTIME • THE PALACE OF AUBURN HILLS

The Palace of Auburn Hills, home of the Detroit Pistons (NBA), Detroit Shock (WNBA) and numerous concerts, family shows and special events, is celebrating its 20th anniversary in 2008-2009.

Built and operated by Arena Associates, The Palace was headed by Pistons managing partner, William Davidson, along with the late David Hermelin and the late Robert Sosnick. An all-encompassing entertainment venue, it quickly became one of the nation's top concert facilities. After just one season, The Palace was honored by two entertainment trade publications, being named "New Venue of the Year" by Performance and "Best New Concert Venue" by Pollstar.

Overall, The Palace has been nominated "Arena of the Year" 10 times by Performance magazine and won the award seven times. It has also earned 10 "Arena of the Year" nominations from Pollstar magazine and won the honor in 1992. Since its inception, The Palace has hosted almost every major touring concert act.

Since opening in 1988, The Palace has undergone more than $110 million in venue renovations throughout the years. For its 20th birthday, guests will enjoy a totally refurbished main concourse and its original club/banquet area will be updated and re-launched as the "Chairman's Club." With the cost of the building and every dollar spent on additions and improvements being privately financed, The Palace continues to uphold its reputation as one of the world's premier sports and entertainment venues. Among the more notable additions include the West Entrance Atrium, which was completed in 1996 and contains three levels of offices, a storage facility and an expanded entrance with numerous amenities. This was followed by the addition of the 12,000 square-foot Casino Windsor Club on the concourse level and the Casino Windsor suite levels for both the 100 and 300-level suites. In 2004, a Light Emitting Diodes (LED) board was installed, allowing for the display of electronic signage around the entire arena and around the state-of-the-art hanging scoreboard during events.

The Palace continued its legacy as America's most innovative arena in 2005 by undertaking its largest enhancement project since its opening. The $30 million new phase included the addition of two sets of exclusive courtside lounge and clubs. The first to open was the KeyBank Club, located under the arena's east seating area, which opened November 2005. The KeyBank Club services five attached 450 square-foot luxury suites as well as all front row season ticket holders.

The project also included a 65,000 square feet expansion of the North Entrance, named the Comcast Pavilion, which opened April 2006. The pavilion's lower level is home to the other set of exclusive club/suites. Club 53, which opened in February 2006, boasts a central club/bar area and eight luxury private suites averaging 1,000 square feet. It is accessible via a private entrance in the Comcast Pavilion and through a tunnel entrance leading to 100 level suite corridor and an exclusive entrance into the arena. The pavilion's concourse level created a dramatic new grand entrance/lobby, which provides guests with additional concourse space, additional box office windows and a new retail area. The new area also increased dining options and amenities in The Palace with café areas featuring Big Boy and Buffalo Wild Wings, the Red Bull Bar and Bacardi Barl. The upper level of the pavilion is the luxurious Ameriprise Financial Club, which has approximately 700 members. Opening approximately the same time was the Sanders Dessert Stop, located on the concourse at the top of the West Entrance stairs, offering sweet treats to guests for all Palace events.

Throughout the years, the organization has added more than a dozen branches. The growth led to a name change, Palace Sports and Entertainment, Inc. (PS&E), to reflect its ever-widening scope of operations. This expansion culminated in 1990 when it purchased DTE Music Theatre (then known as Pine Knob). Since its first summer operating the venue in 1991, the amphitheater has been named the nation's busiest or top-grossing outdoor venue every summer by Amusement Business or Pollstar. Winner of Pollstar's "Best Major Outdoor Concert Venue" in 2000, DTE has been nominated 11 consecutive times for this award which is voted on by a reader's poll. The award capped off the amphitheater's most successful year in which it posted its highest-ever total attendance and was listed as the top amphitheater in Amusement Business' year-end charts and the top-selling outdoor venue on the year-end list of Pollstar.

In 1994, PS&E took over management of Meadow Brook Music Festival, which is housed on the campus of Oakland University in Rochester Hills. Both The Palace of Auburn Hills and Meadow Brook Music Festival have been named "Prime Site Award" winners by Facilities magazine in two consecutive years, 2003 and 2004.

The Shock joined the PS&E family in 1998 and made an immediate impact by posting the highest winning percentage at the time by an expansion team in any professional sport during its inaugural season. They accomplished that feat by going 17-13 for a 56% winning percentage. The Shock later delivered the organization's third championship by winning the 2003 WNBA title and the fifth championship by winning again in 2006.

The company continues to grow as minor league baseball team, the Asheville Tourists, a Class A affiliate of the Colorado Rockies, was added to PS&E ownership during the summer of 2005.

WHAT IS NBA CARES?

NBA Cares is the league's global community outreach initiative that addresses important social issues with an emphasis on programs that support education, health-related causes and youth and family development. The NBA, its teams and players implement and execute programs that impact and inspire children and families worldwide.

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Through NBA CARES, the league, players and teams will raise and contribute $100 million for charity, donate more than 1 million hours of hands-on volunteer service to communities worldwide and build more than 250 places where kids can learn and play over the next five years.

WHAT IS READ TO ACHIEVE?

Part of the league-wide NBA Cares initiative, Read to Achieve stresses the importance of literacy and education to youth. The Pistons launched Read to Achieve in October 2001, and since then, the team has read stories and distributed books to thousands of children. The Pistons have also renovated multiple Live, Learn and Play Centers and provided books and funds to dozens of schools and non-profits. Reaching an estimated 50 million children per year nationwide, Read to Achieve is the most extensive educational outreach initiative in the history of professional sports. The Pistons Read to Achieve sponsors (07-08) included Rock Financial, Sprite, Belle Tire, Ticketmaster, Bowling Centers Association of Southeastern Michigan, Detroit Medical Center, Absopure, National City, Tim Hortons and Metro PCS.

PISTONS-PALACE FOUNDATION MISSION...

Palace Sports & Entertainment and the Detroit Pistons are dedicated to enriching the lives of our communities' youth and families through our unique resources, teamwork and goodwill. We positively impact lives by developing and supporting programs that promote education, recreation and a healthy lifestyle, inspiring excellence through role models and serving as a catalyst for constructive community change.

DETROIT PISTONS LIVE, LEARN AND PLAY CENTER RENOVATIONS

The organization has renovated a league-high 19 Live, Learn and Play Centers. For each renovation, the Pistons commission new paint, carpet, furniture and technology as needed for the existing site. The Pistons also develop graphics of players, Pistons personalities and basketball-themed visuals to bring new life into each room. To top it all off, the Pistons provide hundreds of new and gently used books for each renovated library or resource center. Previous Live, Learn and Play Center renovation locations include local school libraries, the Boys & Girls Club of Flint, Ronald McDonald House of Detroit, Hurricane Katrina Habitat for Humanity House in New Orleans, Tay's Town Suite at the Palace of Auburn Hills and the Children's Hospital of Michigan.

To learn more about Live, Learn and Play Center renovations, please visit www.pistons.com/community/rta.

PISTONS CARES TELETHON

The first ever Pistons Cares Telethon made history on March 14, 2008 as it embarked the first outreach program of its kind for any professional sports team. The Pistons Cares Telethon was a community effort to raise money for the Make-A-Wish Foundation of Michigan during a Pistons home game. The event was in conjunctions with the Pistons 50th anniversary and the goal was to raise enough money to grant 50 wishes to children suffering from life-threatening medical conditions. Donations were collected before and during the game with online donations, radio station broadcasting, in-arena call centers and fan donations during the game. The event was broadcasted on WDIV TV-4 and included the help from Palace Sports and Entertainment employees, sponsors, local radio and TV stations and fans. The event raised over $480,000 and granted 60 wishes to children facing life threatening medical conditions, an average of one wish granted every six days, through the Make-A-Wish Foundation.

"KNOW YOUR BLACK HISTORY MONTH TOUR"

The Detroit Pistons and the Detroit Shock teamed up with Rick Mahorn and Patrick McInnis and sponsors Rock Financial and Fathead, to encourage students in southeast Michigan to know their black history and give them an opportunity to win college scholarships. The 2008 tour touched the lives of more than 1,500 students at 15 southeast Michigan schools and five students were presented with a total of $5,000 in scholarships. Runnerups also received a $100 Visa Gift card with a total of $1,500. Students compete for the scholarships by delivering a presentation on what black history means to them in the form of a speech, rap, poem, dance or other artistic element. All winners were honored during halftime of a Pistons game.

BREAST HEALTH AWARENESS

During the month of October the Pistons teamed up with National City MyTV20 and Karmanos Cancer Institute to encourage women to be proactive by getting regular check-ups. During the course of the month, 50 women who could not normally afford regular screening received free mammogram at Karmanos thanks to the Pistons and National City donating $25,000 to the institute. Breast cancer survivors were recognized during a Pistons preseason game on October 17th in Grand Rapids and also at a home game October 24th with a special on-court recognition from the Pistons players and wives. Jason Maxiell also teamed up with National City for their "Real Men Wear Pink" campaign.

PISTONS AND AMERICAN RED CROSS MICHIGAN HEROES

The Pistons and American Red Cross Michigan Heroes program started during the 2004-05 season and continued into 2007-08 with powerful on-court recognitions and numerous standing ovations. The program encourages fans to nominate a person or group from their local community who has gone above and beyond the call of duty. The hero is then recognized at a Pistons home game for their accomplishments. To nominate a hero, who can come from any walk of life, during the 2008-09 season, fans should to complete an on-line nomination form www.pistons.com/community.

HOLIDAY INITIATIVES

Each year, the Pistons hold numerous holiday initiatives to benefit area youth. Many of these events are coordinated by a player's personal foundation while others are initiated by the organization. Typical events include Thanksgiving dinner celebrations, toy drives, clothing drives, food drives and shopping sprees for underprivileged children. Look for this season's holiday initiatives to get even bigger as the team plans to expand upon initiatives from years past to make an even greater impact during the time of giving.

Collected mittens were donated to youth groups, such as Orchards Children's Services. Last season, more than 600 winter accessories were collected.

SEATS FOR SOLDIERS

During the 2007-08 holiday season hundreds of season ticket holders donated their tickets to the Seats for Soldiers program. Tickets went to soldiers of Selfridge Air National Guard Base as well as their family members. Fans could also purchase tickets at a discounted price to donate to the soldiers. More than 400 servicemen enjoyed the Pistons game where they also received a special recognition for their hard work and dedication to our country.

LINDSEY HUNTER REACHING HIGHER PROGRAM

The Detroit Pistons, the Pistons-Palace Foundation and Lindsey Hunter teamed up for the Reaching Higher program at a local high school in Pontiac. Reaching Higher is a nine-week program designed to motivate emotionally troubled youth so they live a life with more passion and confidence by teaching life skills and providing unconditional support and positive reinforcement. Throughout the program issue and topics such as self-esteem, goal setting, limiting beliefs, positive life choices and managing stress are addressed. In the past, high school students who have completed the course have shown significant improvement in grades, attitudes and relationships by demonstrating the programs effectiveness and lasting impression.

MARCH IS READING MONTH

The Detroit Pistons, its Read to Achieve sponsors and WJBK FOX 2 team up to collect new and gently used books during "March is Reading Month." The campaign encourages fans to donate books at all Pistons home games during the month of March. Books are also collected at various Read to Achieve sponsor locations. In the past six years, the March is Reading Month program has donated more than 100,000 books to schools and non-profit organizations.

The Pistons teamed up with Rock Financial & Made in Detroit to offer limited time underground Pistons-themed t-shirts to raise money for the Pistons-Palace Foundation. T-shirts names were "Pistons Rock Detroit," "Sheed Happens" and "Smooth CB1."

TAY'S TOWN

Tayshaun Prince and his wife, Farah, teamed up with Meijer to purchase a full season Palace suite 322 for the 2007-08 season. The suite invites children with cancer and their families to experience a Pistons game for free. The suite was redesigned as "Tay's Town" and features unique graphical and interactive elements for up to 16 children each Pistons home game. Each child receives a Tay's Town t-shirt, autograph card and pre-game courtside access. The group is selected by Kids Kicking Cancer, which is a non-profit that helps children and families cope when faced with cancer. The grand opening of the suite took place on November 21, 2007 during the Pistons vs. Knicks game.

CHARITABLE DONATION PROGRAM

The Detroit Pistons support the community through donations of tickets and team merchandise. Thousands of individuals from local community organizations and schools attend Pistons games through ticket donations from the Pistons community relations department and the Pistons-Palace Foundation. In addition, in-kind donations such as autographed team merchandise and memorabilia are donated to registered nonprofit organizations. For more information, please visit www.pistons.com/community

PISTONS-PALACE FOUNDATION SILENT AUCTION PROGRAM

The Pistons-Palace Foundation in-arena silent auction program offers unique, autographed memorabilia from area sports teams including the Pistons, Shock, Tigers, Lions, Red Wings, college teams as well as items signed by players that made history from all sports teams. These items are available at every home game. The silent auction station is located on the concourse at section 108/109. Both framed and unframed items are available for a range of costs.

Most items are open for bidding, while other "BUY NOW" items are available for purchase on the spot. More than 45 items are available every game and bidding closes at the end of halftime. Items are also available at www.pistons.com/community through an online auction. All proceeds benefit the Pistons-Palace Foundation to be reinvested back into the community for education, youth and literacy initiatives.

THE DETROIT PISTONS PARTNER PROGRAM PRESENTS... "SKILLS FOR SUCCESS"

The Detroit Pistons are bringing their basketballs, jerseys, whistles and chalkboard as part of our complimentary "Skills For Success" Assembly to your school. Creating a championship environment among students, teachers, staff members and parents is the goal for this highly recognized and award-winning three-part program. The special events will be conducted by Steve Moreland, who is in his 13th year as the Detroit Pistons Director of Development and Basketball Camps/Clinics. The Pistons have appeared at over 1,200 schools statewide during the past 12 years.

Sharing our recipes for success as they relate to building a championship team, our topics will include: setting goals, being on time, working hard and practicing your skills, studying the game plan, playing the game and continuing to improve. Also as part of the fun, selected students and teachers will wear our Detroit Pistons jerseys as they demonstrate good sportsmanship during our Pistons shooting contest.

HERE ARE THE THREE PARTS TO THE PISTONS PARTNER PROGRAM:

For taking the first step in becoming a "Pistons Partner," your school will be awarded a complimentary afternoon Detroit Pistons "Skills For Success" Assembly conducted by "Coach Steve" and his staff. This year's presentation will help establish a successful foundation for learning and everyday living.

You will receive an exclusive Detroit Pistons plaque acknowledging your school as a "Detroit Pistons Partner." This 40-minute assembly is available to the first 40 schools that register for the entire program.

The second step of the Pistons Partner Program consists of an after-school basketball clinic held in your school's gymnasium on the same day of the assembly. Our Pistons camp coaching staff will teach the ABC's of basketball to K-5 boys and girls during this 1-1/2 hour session. Clinic participants receive a free Pistons game ticket, a special Detroit Pistons T-shirt, a certificate of participation and various prizes for basketball skill contests.

participating in a clinic at The Palace of Auburn Hills.

*Investment for each clinic participant is only $25 (regular value of $70)

The $25 fee includes:

- . A 1-1/2 hours clinic (regular price $25)
- Special Detroit Pistons T-shirt (regular $20)
- 1 regular season game ticket (regular $25)
- Pistons certificate of participation and prizes for contest winners

The third and final step of our Pistons Partnership with your school wouldn't be complete without an invitation for all students, faculty, families and friends to experience an authentic Pistons Game Day at The Palace of Auburn Hills. For only $20, all fans can attend a Pistons regular-season home game selected by your staff. Make this a memorable night for all to enjoy!

We will acknowledge your school during a pre-game presentation. Your Principal, a selected staff member and several students will represent your school down on the Pistons' home court prior to the game. After the ceremony, everyone can sit back and enjoy exhilarating, action-packed Pistons basketball!

To schedule dates and times for the Pistons Partner Program, please contact Curtis Rybski, Manager – Basketball Camps/Clinics, at (248) 377-8653. Assembly/clinic dates, times, and Pistons game dates are limited to the first 40 schools on a first-come, first-serve basis!

16 STATEWIDE 4-DAY YOUTH BASKETBALL CAMPS

The purpose of the Detroit Pistons Training Camp Tour is to impact youth and improve their skills in the game of basketball as well as in the game of life. A typical camp puts emphasis on the fundamental skills of basketball such as passing, shooting, ball handling, rebounding and defense. The coaching staff conducts contests such as: Hot Shot, Free Throws, Knock Out and Beat the Pro for campers to win trophies and prizes. Campers are also judged for week-long camp honors such as the Attitude Award, Hustle Award and the Most Valuable Player Award. Campers also play in action-packed games against players in their age range and of similar skill level.

Basketball is not the only topic of discussion during 4-day Pistons Training Camps. Life skills such as teamwork, building confidence, positive peer pressure, good work ethic and other topics that are important to today's youth are stressed and encouraged by staff members.

Over the past 12 years, the Pistons Training Camp Tour has reached more than 24,000 campers at camps statewide and in nearby Ohio. The camp has made stops in Ypsilanti, Battle Creek, Utica, Howell, Flint, Lansing, Cadillac, Midland, Grand Rapids, Kalamazoo, Gaylord, Harbor Springs, Petoskey, Toledo, Traverse City, Holly, Fenton, Plymouth/Canton, Rochester, Lake Orion, Brighton, Hillsdale, Holt, West Bloomfield, Muskegon, Manchester, Coldwater and at the Palace of Auburn Hills.

For 2008 Detroit Pistons Training Camp Tour information, please call our Camp Hotline at (248) 377-8653.

DIRECTOR OF DEVELOPMENT AND CAMPS & CLINICS

Steve Moreland enters his 13th season as Director of Development and Basketball Camps/Clinics for the Detroit Pistons. Moreland directs the Detroit Pistons Training Camp Tour, which consists of 16 summer youth basketball camps throughout the state of Michigan and northern Ohio. More than 24,000 boys and girls have participated in the Training Camp tour since its inception 12 years ago. These premier camps include guest appearances by Pistons players, coaches and staff.

Moreland also oversees the Detroit Pistons Partner Program. Targeting school-aged children K-5, the programs provides daily tips to help improve student's lifestyle by focusing on physical fitness, health and sports. In the last 12 years, Moreland has been delivering motivational and educational messages from the Pistons to more than 1,200 schools.

"Coach Steve" has also become a highly respected motivational speaker for organizations and businesses throughout the state of Michigan. He was appointed to the Michigan's Governor's Council on Physical Fitness, Health and Sports by former Governor John Engler. Moreland is actively involved with the Chamber of Commerce and served as President of his local elementary school PTO in past years.

Moreland joined the Pistons prior to the start of the 1996-97 season, coming from Disney's Wide World of Sports. He and his wife, Lori, have three children; Christa, Tyler and Shane and reside in Grand Blanc, Michigan.

GEORGE BLAHA • PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER

A local broadcasting icon and one of the most recognizable personalities in Detroit and the NBA, George Blaha begins his 33rd consecutive season as the television and radio play-by-play voice of the Detroit Pistons in 2008-2009. The "Voice of the Pistons" is the longest tenured play-by-play announcer in the State of Michigan following the retirement of legendary Detroit Tigers broadcaster Emie Harwell. Blaha brings a high-energy style to go with his extensive basketball knowledge and demonstrates a true passion for Pistons basketball. His trademark colloquialisms such as, "two and twenty-two to play" and "a high glass gun that goes" have thrilled Pistons fans of all ages for three decades.

Blaha enjoyed a banner year in 2008 when he was named Michigan's Sportscaster of the Year for the second time by The Detroit News (2003, 2008) and enshrined in the Michigan Sports Hall of Fame. He was also honored by Michigan State as an honorary letterman and member of the "S" Club. Blaha was honored with the Ty Tyson Award for broadcasting excellence by the Detroit Sports Broadcasters Association in 2003.

Blaha handles play-by-play duties on either television or radio for all 82 regular-season games plus pre and postseason games on FSN Detroit and WDFN - the Pistons flagship stations. He also hosts the "Pistons Weekly" television program, which airs Sunday nights on WDIV TV4 at midnight, and has handled play-by-play duties for Michigan State Football since 1971. In 2002, he was made an honorary alumnus of Michigan State University.

During the Pistons off-season, Blaha stays active as a Pistons ambassador making appearances at charitable and community events. His annual "High Hopes" golf outing for the Vista Maria home for abused young women in the metropolitan area, has raised well over a half million dollars for the charity. He is also an honorary chairman of the annual golf outing for the St. Louis Center for the developmentally disabled. Blaha serves as spokesman and fundraiser for the Michigan Anti-Cruelty Society, benefiting neglected and abused animals in the City of Detroit.

Born in Detroit, Blaha was raised in Marshalltown, Iowa and Grayling, Michigan. He graduated with a B.A. in economics from Notre Dame University and earned an MBA from the University of Michigan. He resides in Troy and Gaylord Michigan.

GREG KELSER • TELEVISION ANALYST

Greg Kelser joins George Blaha for his 12th season as television analyst on FSN Detroit. Kelser has worked Pistons games on television and radio since 1988. Kelser has established himself as a veteran NBA color commentator working the past 16 seasons for the Pistons' cable partners. In addition to his analytical duties, Kelser also lends his expertise during segments of the pre-game show and is frequently featured as an NBA analyst for FSN Detroit's Sports Report which airs nightly at 10:00 p.m.

Kelser worked six seasons with PASS Sports prior to his FSN Detroit engagement. He served as the Pistons color commentator for WWJ radio during home games nine seasons ago and has also worked on collegiate television broadcasts in a variety of settings, including the NCAA tournament.

A former All-American and Academic All-American at Michigan State University, Kelser, along with Earvin "Magic" Johnson, captained the Spartans to the 1979 NCAA Championship. He was drafted by the Pistons in 1979 and played in Detroit until he was traded to the Seattle Supersonics for Vinnie Johnson.

An active member in his community, Kelser conducts several basketball camps during the summer and is involved in various charities throughout the state of Michigan.

MARK CHAMPION . RADIO PLAY-BY-PLAY

Mark Champion enters the ninth year of his second stint with the Detroit Pistons as the radio voice in 2008-2009. He functions in this capacity when George Blaha is handling television duties for the Pistons. Champion first joined the Pistons organization in 1992 sharing the airwaves with Blaha until the end of the 1995-96 season. He rejoined the organization for the 2001-02 season in his new capacity.

A radio veteran who brings more than 37 years of sports broadcasting experience to the microphone, Champion served as the radio voice of the Detroit Lions, a post he held for 16 seasons. He has also served as the voice of Michigan State Men's Basketball and has worked in three Winter Olympics Games.

In addition to his duties with the Pistons and Lions, Champion handled television playby-play duties for the Detroit Fury of the Arena Football League (AFL). Most recognized among NFL announcing circles for his work with the Lions and earlier with the Tampa Bay

Buccaneers, Champion serves as the voice for Disney asking the Super Bowl MVP "Where are you going next?"

A Muncie, Indiana native, Champion resides in Lake Orion.

RICK MAHORN • RADIO ANALYST

Rick Mahorn begins his seventh season as a color analyst for the Pistons radio broadcast on WDFN. Mahorn brings his extensive NBA experience and joins George Blaha and Mark Champion to deliver insightful commentary during Pistons home games.

Following an 18-year NBA playing career, Mahorn served as head coach of the Rockford Lightning of the Continental Basketball Association (CBA) for the 1999-00 season. He led the Lightning to a 15-7 overall record and the American Conference title, which earned them a No. 2 seed in the 2000 CBA Playoffs. Mahorn's coaching excellence was recognized in two CBA Coach-of-the-Month Awards. He then joined the coaching staff of the Atlanta Hawks under Lon Kruger during the 2001-02 season.

In 2005, Mahorn joined the Detroit Shock coaching staff, helping take the team to a sixth straight playoff appearance and second WNBA Championship.

Mahorn was drafted by the Washington Bullets (now Wizards) in the second round of the 1980 NBA Draft. He came to Detroit prior to the 1985-86 season and helped the franchise win its first championship as a member of the original "Bad Boys" team in 1988-89. He also earned All-NBA second team defensive honors that season. He later had a second stint with the Pistons from 1996-98.

A Hartford, CT, native, Mahorn was a four-year letter winner at Hampton Institute (VA). He was a three-time NCAA Division II and NAIA All-American and owned 18 school records. He graduated with a degree in business administration in 1980.

ELIZARET • SIDELINE REPORTER

Eli Zaret enters his third season as sideline reporter with the Pistons, partnering with George Blaha and Greg Kelser during broadcasts on FSN Detroit. He began his career in 1974 as the first FM sports caster in Detroit, first heard on WABX-FM. In 1979, while working at WRIF-FM, he won a nationwide audition to host the first ever nationally syndicated FM sportscast.

Zaret began his television career in 1980 at WDIV-TV while still at WRIF, and became the lead sports anchor there in 1984. He later became the lead anchor at WABC-TV in New York. Upon returning to WJBK-TV in Detroit in 1988, he also began a seven- year stint at WCSX-FM with a variety of morning show hosts including JJ and Lynn.

Zaret hosted the first locally produced half-hour baseball pre-game show in America on WDIV-TV. He also hosted the Emmy-winning Eli and Denny Show on WJBK-TV with former 31-game winner Denny McLain. In 1997 he created the LockerRoom show on WDIV with Kirk Gibson and Gary Danielson that ran on both radio and television until 2004.

He has published three books, including 2003's "84 — The Last of the Great Tigers, Untold Stories from an Amazing Season," 2004's "Blue Collar Blueprint — How the Pistons Created their Championship Formula," and his latest "I told you I wasn't perfect" with Denny McLain which debuted in 2007 and made it to the top ten in the ESPN/Borders best-seller list.

Hire the "Hardest Workin' Dance Team" in the NBA for your next event!

The Detroit Pistons Dance Team Automotion is celebrating more than 10 years of entertaining fans at The Palace of Auburn Hills. Their high-energy performances increase the level of spirit and enthusiasm inside The Palace at all Pistons home games.

During the past decade the Detroit Pistons Dance Program has grown by leaps and bounds, by not only providing show-stopping performances but by reaching out in the community. As Goodwill Ambassadors for the Detroit Pistons, Automotion participates in numerous community events, including the award-winning NBA Read-To-Achieve program promoting literacy throughout the state of Michigan. Each year, Automotion makes over 300 community appearances.

Rebecca Girard, DANCE TEAM DIRECTOR

Known as the "Hardest Workin' Dance Team in the NBA," their rigorous rehearsal schedule and intense training seminars leave very little down time for this talented group of ladies. Their commitment to excellence and tireless work ethic makes them strong role models for young women everywhere.

Automotion is a well-rounded group of intelligent, diverse and highly-talented individuals who provide professionalism, class and enthusiasm wherever they go. Their passion and dedication along with their training and preparation are the main ingredients for Automotion's success and popularity.
